Remember Being Treated Like An “Important” Client?

With Responsiveness, Flexibility and Results?
Our clients tell us they know the feeling.

As Atlanta’s fastest growing company* Callaway Partners responds to client needs, is flexible based on project deadlines, and achieves results that are generally far above expectations. Our firm provides on-demand finance and accounting expertise for premier companies as well as those striving to make it to the top. Callaway Partners’ proven track record of success assures timely, cost effective solutions to management’s accounting and financial issues.

Based on a foundation of integrity, professionalism and experience, we offer a fresh alternative to meet the changing needs of clients following the many regulatory changes effecting the accounting profession. Our services include:

- Non-Attestation Accounting and Finance Project Management and Consulting
- Sarbanes-Oxley Compliance
- Financial Restatements and Litigation Support

Working hand in hand with clients, we deliver quantifiable results, on time and on budget, with just the right team to get the job done. That’s what earned us a spot at the top ... service solutions that are practical, responsive and flexible; at rates that are refreshing.
